YOUNG LAD SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY STREET CAR

Leg Crushed When Thrown Under Car

Jack Hoyes, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyes of Gibsonton, was seriously injured last evening by a street car of the West Side Electric Railways company. It was not learned how the accident occurred as the injured lad was picked up by the crew of the third car running from this city to Belle Vernon at about 6:25. Two cars had passed the crossing at Gibsonton and the third was traveling some distance behind when the motorman discovered the lad lying alongside the track.

He stopped his car and picking the youth up, found that he had received a badly crushed left leg. The boy was unconscious and no one in the vicinity seemed to know how the accident occurred. Both crews of the other cars had no knowledge of any accident until informed of the finding of the injured lad.

It is believed the boy attempted to board the second car on the side which was closed and was thrown under the wheels and his leg crushed. He was taken to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital where it was stated that an effort will be made to save the injured limb from amputation.

Find Missing Student

(By United Press)

Providence, R. I., Nov. 15.—Robert A. Frankel, a freshman at the Brown University, who has been missing since November 1st, was located today at a turkish bathhouse here. He had been at the place ever since leaving the school. The young man communicated with his father by phone and left immediately for his home in New York without making any statement.

Farewell Surprise

A farewell surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. James Galey at their home in Grandview last evening. Twentyfive guests gathered at the home and enjoyed a pleasant evening in games and amusements. A delightful supper was served at 11 o'clock, the banquet table being tastefully decorated with two huge boquets of chrysathemums. The guests departed at a late hour extending their best wishes to the family, which will shortly leave to make their future home on a farm recently purchased by Mr. Galey near Butler.

Cork, Nov. 16.—Three men, including an English officer were dragged from a train near here last night. It is believed they were taken off the train by kidnappers in revenge for the death of Lord MacSwiney.

Killed By Speed Maniac

(By United Press)

Erie, Pa., Nov. 16.—An unknown autoist, disregarding red light signals, protesting two workmen fixing the street car line, crashed into them while traveling at the rate of 40 miles an hour at two o'clock this morning, instantly killing one and fatally injuring the other. The dead man is William W. Schulz, whose skull was fractured and both his legs were broken. William Donaldson the other workmen, was crushed about the body and was still unconscious this morning.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Viola celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding Saturday evening at which time friends gathered at their home for a social time. A pleasant evening was spent in dancing and a musical program was rendered. Mrs. Viola served a dainty lunch. Mr. Michael Fritz entertained with a number of songs. Those present were Professor Frank Rizzuto, Mr. and Mrs. Carmine Parise, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parise, Mr. and Mrs. Pizzi, Mr. and Mrs. Coetese, Mr. and Mrs. Desantes, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Boniparte, James Altimari, Angillo Grico, Sam Piazza, Dominic Cecari and many other friends and neighbors of the honor guests.

Indifference of Team May Result in Defeat

Just before the hardest game on their schedule, the game that will decide whether or not they are to reach the finals for the championship of the W. P. I. A. L. and the Syracuse trophy, the local High school football team is following the precedent set by last year's aggregation, refusing to make adequate preparation for the game. Last night's practice was characterized by indifference and lack of "pep" on the part of the first team. They were placed on the defense and their work was the poorest shown this year.

The first team kicked off to the second team and the ball was returned to the 40 yard line by the scrubs. From here they started a march toward the regular's goal and were not stopped until the ball was placed behind the goal line plunge by John Miller. The gains were made on line plunges and short end runs and varied from three to ten yards at a down. The first team line refused to charge, seemingly content with throwing their opponents after they had secured three to five yard gains. The secondary defense was no better. Instead of coming up fast to meet the plays, they stood with their arms folded waiting for the man with the ball to come to them.

Scrimmage practice lasted one half hour during which time the second team scored two touchdowns and were held for downs only three times. It is altogether likely that several changes will be made in the local team before Saturday's game. If Mouse Nye is able to play, he will probably be placed back at tackle, where he showed up well until injured last night. Myford may be shifted to tackle as he seems to have more "pep" than all the rest of the line put together. Ed Anderson may be placed at center instead of Lebowitz, on account of the former's indifference toward practice.

Pillette and Parrella have both been showing up well at ends as has Dileman. One of the two may be found at end for Saturday's game. Whether or not Spraling will start the game hasn't been shown on defense this week. The kid always has the fighting spirit, but he has shown a tendency to fumble at critical times.

One thing is certain, unless the first team gets down to serious work and show more speed and enthusiasm in their practice, they will be swamped by the powerful Uniontown eleven. Uniontown looks like the best team in the league. They defeated Charleroi High 28-3 last week after Charleroi held Washington High to a scoreless tie. They boast of the fastest backfield in Western Pennsylvania and they also have a heavy aggression line. What Monessen team needs is well illustrated by a remark made to Coach Townsend by a rival fan. He said, "You ought to put a stick of dynamite in each player's hip pocket and then apply a match to it." He might be right from the fan's point of view. What the team lacks is pep. Without a decided change in the spirit of the team, they are doomed to defeat next Saturday.

WEBSTER MURDER CASE ENDS ABRUPTLY WHEN PRISONER IS ACQUITTED

George Entiko of Webster, charged with the murder of Mike Benbince on September 23 was given his freedom yesterday afternoon when, after the commonwealth had submitted its testimony, Judge Alexander D. McConnell directed there was not sufficient evidence to convict the prisoner and directed that the jury dispose of the case. The latter returned a verdict of "not guilty" without leaving their seats.

The killing was one of the most brutal in this vicinity, the victim having his head crushed in with the blunt end of an axe in the hands of the man who was found not guilty of the crime. According to Entiko, who was arrested shortly after the crime, Benbince confronted an ill still at Finleyville and brought his product to the home of Mrs. Sara, a neighbor of Entiko's to dispense among the friends of Webster, where the party was in session.

When Benbince left the Sara home on the night of September 26, Mrs. Sara, with whom he had become intimate, stated that she had trouble with Entiko and that she had him arrested and he was fined $24.00 and costs before Justice Shuster of this city.

Benbince was enraged when he heard of the affair and it is claimed by Entiko came to his home with a drawn revolver and threatened to kill him. In the struggle which followed Benbince was shot through the head. Before he staggered from the house and fell dead in the yard, where he was found later and rushed to the Memorial hospital at Monessen, his death occurring several hours later.

County Detective Paul L. Freightner was notified and caused the arrest of Entiko on a charge of murder. The case was called yesterday morning with the commonwealth being represented by W. T. Dom, Jr. and the defendant by Attorneys P. K. Saanor and Paul S. McCormick.

This morning the case of the commonwealth vs. Alex Durigon of Pricedale was taken up before Judge Cromlish. The prisoner is charged with the murder of Frank Ball, whom it is alleged, he shot and killed while returning from a picnic near Pricedale and a large number of witnesses were called in the trial.

Man Killed By Crane at Hoop Mill

Ralph Lee Guthe, aged 22, colored, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon at two o'clock while at work at the Carnegie Steel Hoop mill here. The young man was sitting on a locomotive crane and just before the operator started to put the crane in motion, he ordered the man off. The man obeyed immediately but instead of moving completely out of danger, he again sat down along the wall and when the crane was put in motion, he was caught between the revolving crane and wall and literally crushed to death.

He was hurried to the emergency hospital where it was discovered he was suffering from a broken back and that his death was only a matter of a few moments. The man was conscious and told fellow employees that he was about to die. His death occurred twenty minutes after the accident and the body was removed to the Wright undertaking morgue and prepared for burial.

The young man was known as Ralph Lee and came here about three months ago ofrom Philadelphia, where he had been making his home with a brother. The brother was notified of the accident and word was received that he would be here today to take charge of the body. A coroner's inquest will be held today.

League in Session

By HENRY WOOD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, Nov. 16—The League of Nations assembly today began functioning as a "deliberating society."

With the formalities of elections and commission appointments and the routine nights of a message to President Wilson, greetings to King Albert and the wreathing of the Rousseau statue disposed of, the assembly was ready for real business.

Terse officers of the league council submitted a report of its work for the past year. Debate over this was expected to occupy the entire day. The council undertook final action on a number of projects naturally belonging to the league, and the latter now will be asked to approve the decisions.

The assembly was ready for any problem today with the appointment of six great commissions to which all questions can be referred. It settled one matter yesterday by declining to consider applications of enemy countries for admission.

Paris is intent for revision of the peace treaty with Chile and Bolivia's expression of the Chilean treaty of 1904 have been withdrawn. President Harding announced.

Fire Beyond Control

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 15.—Fire which broke out yesterday in the Uniontown-Connellsville mine, near Brownsville, of the Uniontown-Connellsville Coal company, is so far beyond control. Officials of the company announced today the only way the flames could be extinguished would be by flooding the mine.

The fire began from an undetermined origin in the main shaft. At the time of its discovery, there were 165 miners in the workings, but all escaped without confusion before there was any sign the blaze would become serious. Burning embers fell from the shaft to main workings 160 feet below and a second fire resulted. It was the latter blaze which resulted in the fire becoming uncombatable.

The fire in the workings communicated to the fan house and air shafts, after which it forked its way into every crevice, entry and room in the mine, consuming tool rooms, stalls, fan house and other structures of the mine. Combatting the fire other than by water was abandoned today and the mine, it is said, will be flooded.

Work of sealing up the mine is well under way. According to mine officials, the mine will be rendered useless for two years at least, as it will take that time to pump the water from it.

James E. Gray, president of the company, said yesterday that the minimum loss would not be lower than $1,000,000. The coal taken from the mine he said is of the finest grade in Fayette County. The fire will force about 200 men out of work.

Youngstown, Pa., Nov. 16.—Pres. G. F. Jones, of the Republic Rubber Co., today announced a reduction of 15 per cent in the prices of tires manufactured here.

THANKSGIVING DAY

By saying that "the burdens and the stress of life have their own insistence," President Wilson, in his annual Thanksgiving Proclamation, seeks to emphasize the importance of giving a day on which to make special acknowledgement for the blessings and the joys of life.

It is true that the burdens and the stresses have their own insistence. Thye are their own reminders. They interpose their presence in thought and in action. There is no need of pointing the finger to them, or of setting apart a day upon which to discern that they are with us. They have their own insistence.

But for the very reason that this is so, there is all the greater reason why we, as a people and as individuals, should seek to discern and to remind ourselves that life isn't made up solely of burdens or stresses—that there is plenty, that there is security, and that there is peace, among us.

To use the words of President Wilson:

"We have abundant cause of Thanksgiving. The lessons of the war are rapidly healing. The great army of freemen, which America sent to the defense of liberty, returning to the grateful embrace of the Nation, has resumed the useful pursuits of peace, as simply and as promptly as it rushed to arms in obedience to the country's call. The equal justice of our laws has received steady vindication in the support of a law-abiding people against various and sinister attacks, which have reflected only the baser agitations of war, now happily passing. In plenty, security and peace, our virtuous and self reliant people face the future, its duties and its opportunities. May we have vision to discern our duties; the strength, both of hand and resolve, to discharge them; and the soundness of heart to realize that the truest opportunities are those of service.

In a spirit, then, of devotion and stewardship, we should give thanks in our hearts, and dedicate ourselves to the service of God's merciful and loving purposes to His children.

The message is restrained in its tone—it may be reflective, to an extent, of the trouble and of the disappointment and of the concern in the President's own mind—but nevertheless, it is replete with food for contemplation and convincing in its declaration as to the abundancy of reason why we, as a nation, should approach the Thanksgiving season, with hearts filled with gratitude for the blessings received.

Thanksgiving Day will find America still strong, still resourceful, still rich in material blessings, stil sturdy in hope—the one Nation able and sufficient, not only to go forward to its own great destiny, but able and willing to help save the world.

THE GOLDEN GIRDLE

One of the 12 great labors of the Greek god Hercules was to fetch the golden girdle worn by Hippolyte, the queen of Scythia. Scythia was what might be called the first woman's suffrage state. It was governed exclusively by women.

Hercules, it might be said, was the first anti-suffragist of history. The idea of a state well and strongly governed by women gave him a pain, and he made up his mind to humble that government by seizing the queen and taking from her the girdle the fame of which had spread over the then known world.

Strong man tho he was, Hercules did not feel equal to the task of single-handedly doing the job. So he took with him a large company of powerful followers. And a rough time they had of it.

He first demanded the girdle, but the queen of the Scythians told him to run along and mind his own business and that it was a silly thing anyhow, for a man of his reputation to devoting his great energies to such a trivial matter.

She said, in effect, there are so many great evils in the world, so many vicious dragons and monsters that he with his great energy and enterprise could suppress, that he was foolish to be wasting his time to take her girdle away from her.

But Hercules was obstinate and when he couldn't get the girdle by peaceful measures, he resorted to violence. The queen and her countrywomen fought with such obstinacy that only by intercession of his fellow gods was Hercules able finally to obtain the girdle.

The efforts certain anti-suffragists made in the courts to deprive women of their hard-won right to vote, is not unlike the silly campaign of Hercules against the queen's golden girdle. But the gods are not on their side as they were with Hercules, the first of the anti-suffragists. The golden girdle of equal civic rights, buckled by the votes of 37 states, is on to stay.

And to paraphrase the words of the Scythian queen, why should Americans waste their energies fighting an established fact approved by the conscience of the nation when there are so many genuine issues to command the attention of energetic Americans?

The peace conference used 80,000 francs worth of cigars. The Indians used to accomplish more peace with an old pipe and a couple of tobacco leaves.

Paid Fines

Harrisburg, Nov. 16.—During the nine months ending September 30, 1920, fines paid the State Treasurer and the authorities of cities, boroughs and townships in Pennsylvania by violators of the automobile laws increased $20,025.95 over the same period in 1919.

In the first nine months of 1920 there were 4,908 arrests for violations of the automobile laws; and in the same period of 1919 the arrests totaled 3,134. The increase was 1,774.

The big increase occurred during the third quarter of 1920. In this period the increase over the same three months of 1919, in fines paid the State Treasurer, was $11,371.15; in fines paid the city, borough, or township treasurers' $4,371.75. During the first nine months in 1920 the State Treasurer received fines totaling $34,190.15; and in hte same period of 1919, $19,700.50. The total fines paid the city, borough or township treasurers in the same period of 1920 was $21,221.75; and in 1919, $15,685.25. The total fines collected by State and municipal authorities during the first nine months of 1920 was $55,411.70; in 1919, $35,385.75.

There were almost double the arrests in the third quarter of 1920 over the third quarter of 1919. The arrests made, which resulted in fines payable to the State Treasurer, were 645 greater in 1920 than in 1919; and 556 greater in cases in which fines were paid to the city, borough or township treasurers.

Try MEDICATED VAPORS

For Colds and Coughs that are Deep-seated and Hard to get rid of

The deep-seated cold or cough means that the inflammation has penetrated dangerously far down into the lungs where ordinary treatments are ineffective.

Medicinal vapors should be inhaled nightly to supplement the external treatment. Before retiring, apply Krew-Pina in the nostrils and rub it well over the chest and throat. Then, getting into bed, draw the bed clothes up over the nose so as to form a funnel between the chest and nostrils, and inhale the medicinal vapors the heat of the body causes Krew-Pina to give off. Renew these treatments until the inflammation has been expelled.

Keep a jar of Krew-Pina in the house. It is an ointment composed entirely of simple remedies such as Oil of Pine and other powerful volatile oils—absolutely harmless. At the same time, it is a scientifically compounded, powerful agent for the relief of many household sicknesses and hurts including bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, sores, foot trouble, lame back, neuralgia, bruises and stone bruises, burns, cuts, etc. 30c and 60c jars—at your druggist's.

CHIROPRACTIC is the science of removing pressure from nerves, caused by mis-alignment of the segments of the Spinal Column, thereby bringing about a condition of health.

TROOPS IN FLIGHT

(By United Press)

Constantinople, Nov. 16—General Wrangel and 20,000 troops are reported to have fled from Sebastopol.

The baron was one of the last to leave Sebastopol when soviet troops encroached its outer defenses.

The evacuation of Sebastopol by czarist population was marked by complete demoralization. Quays were piled high with personal belongings which had to be discarded when refugees boarded ships. Only one-third those desiring transportation could be carried away by the shipping available.

Other Crimean ports, already in the hands of the Bolsheviki suffered like congestion.

In Constantinople many rescue ships rode at anchor unable to land refugees because of lack of accommodation in the city.

He Had the "Flu" Then Pneumonia

The After Effects Soon Left After He Used Earle's Hypo-Cod

ALL HIS FRIENDS TAKING IT NOW

Another enthusiastic booster for this new and more modern tonic, Earle's Hypo-Cod, is C. E. Kemp, a popular police officer of Carnegie, Pa., whose address is given below.

Mr. Kemp had the "Flu" and then Pneumonia last winter and as everybody knows it requires an extremely powerful tonic to reach the spot quickly after a siege of these two diseases. He said:

"I had the flu and then pneumonia and was sick abed from the 19th of January until February 19th and mighty sick, too. I had all the after effects. I was weak, my limbs would shake and give way under me and I was all in, but after I had finished the first bottle of Hypo-Cod I was gaining strength and it did me so much good nearly everybody I know is taking it now. My wife and niece and several friends here in Carnegie are using it and Earle's Hypo-Cod is all it is advertised to be," continued Officer Kemp. 1218 Railroad Ave., Carnegie, Pa.

If you are just recovering from long wasting illness, or are in a general rundown condition subject to most kinds of ailments, go right down to the drug store and secure a bottle of this tonic and at once start strengthening your disease resisting vitality. Druggists, chemists, nurses and thousands of users say it is good. Just read the formula on a bottle at your druggist tonight.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.

Enlarge Donora Mills

The announcement made a few days ago that the United States Steel Corporation expects to spend approximately about $100,000,000 in this district on the extensions and betterments of plans has caused Donora people to anticipate some extensive improvements to the mills at that place. For a number of years it has been said that an additional blast furnace with a capacity of 500 tons, was to be erected there, together with other mills that would cause a material increase in the way of industrial activities at that place. The recent acquisition of farm lands north of the borough line of Donora and which is now being filled in along the river has made a splendid site for any additional mills that the Corporation might decide to erect at that point.

Meeting Friday

The Westmoreland Press Association will hold a meeting Friday afternoon in Greensburg in the Court House. The business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock and at 6 o'clock the company will be guests of R. W. Herbert, editor of the Tribune, for a big dinner. Mr. Herbert is a genial host and a good fellow and the dinner will likely be very enjoyable. He is sure a prince at providing something for the inner man that the fraternal laiety always love to stick their legs under his mahogany

New Truck Service

The Pittsburgh Board of Trade is promoting a truck transportation company to be called the Rainbow line and will carry freight to and from Pittsburgh a distance of 70 miles each way. Mr. Higgs representing Mr. Emrick of the New Enterprise Committee of the Board of Trade was here today calling on local merchants relative to the enterprise. If Monessen subscribes sufficiently to the fund necessary to start the line the town will receive the service. It is hoped that actual transportation will start on or about January 1st.

McCormick Resigns

Pittsburgh Nov 16—Dr John G. Bowman of Chicago, director of the American College of Surgeons and formerly president of the State University of Iowa, has been chosen chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh Dr Bowman's selection was announced last week following a meeting of the University Board of Trustees

Dr Samuel Black McCormick whom Dr Bowman succeeds as chancellor, has been at the head of the University of Pittsburgh since 1904, and has given the local school a progressive administration which has been marked by the consolidation of all departments of the University under one administration, removal to a new campus in the Schenley Farms district the growth of the student body from a few hundred to the more than 6000 students registered this year and a corresponding development in material resources and educational standards, until today the University is ranked as one of the foremost institutions of its kind in the country

The resignation of Dr McCormick was a result on account of the condition of his health which has made his many duties as head of the University of Pittsburgh a burden in recent months

Mexico's Banking System Offers the First Big Task

Fear of Paper Money Makes Mexico's Financial Reform Hard for Obregon

By RALPH H. TURNER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Mexico City, Nov. 16—Of all the problems which will confront President-elect Obregon when he assumes the leadership of the Mexican nation next December, none will demand more urgent solution than the rehabilitation of the country's banking system

Thus far Provisional President De La Huerta has left the question almost untouched, evidently believing the problem to be so immense that a short-term ("substitute" government could not tackle it.

De la Huerta, however, has divided the question into two salient angles: First, a banking law must be enacted, establishing rules for the guidance of both native and foreign banks; second a national bank of issue must be founded.

Around both features of the issue revolves the necessity of providing some form of reimbursement for the banks which suffered enormous losses during the revolution Little progress has been made toward the drafting of a banking law Several tentative projects have been drawn up, but none of them has passed beyond the embryonic stage and it is not likely any definite action will be taken until after Obregon's installation.

As for the establishment of a national bank, the Treasury Department has at least prepared a project on the subject, which may be presented to Congress at an early date In this connection, it is recognized first that the institution must be a bank emission Mexico today is one of the few countries of the world—perhaps the only one—which is on so thoroughly a gold basis that not a single piece of paper is in circulation. One issue of paper after another, during the revolutionary period, has either depreciated or been repudiated to such an extent that the public will have nothing to do with any money except that mode of metal.

By establishing a national bank of issue, the government hopes to restore public confidence and return paper money to circulation. This is one of the main features of the plan for the new bank. This institution, according to the present proposal, is to be known as "The Bank of the Mexican Republic," and is to be the sole bank of issue during a period of fifty years. The capital of the bank will be 100,000,000 pesos, Mexican currency, to consist of a million shares of 100 pesos each, half of which is to be subscribed by the government and the other half by individuals, local or foreign, and by other banks The project permits the institution to issue notes ranging in denomination from five to one thousand pesos, the total of these notes not to be more than 100 per cent in excess of the bank's gold reserves nor more than three times the capital. The bank may establish branches throughout the republic—in this way the government hopes to revive the national financial structure.

How the Mexican people will receive a new issue of paper money, when the bank is founded, will form one of the surest and most severe tests of the Obregon administration

What happened to the banks in Mexico under Carranza, creating the present situation, is well described by Carranza's own finance secretary, Luis Cabrera, who writes that the First Chief, in 1916, "first demanded of the banks that they bring their reserves to a par with their circulation, later placed them in liquidation and finally confiscated their gold and silver, the banks as a result ceasing to function."

MOVE TO SAVE BB "SPITTERS"

(By United Press)

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 16—Stan Coveleskie, Cleveland's star Pole pitcher, had just battled his way through a wild crowd of jubilant fans into the club house.

He had just won his third game of the world series and pitched the Indians into their first world's championship

The fans were acclaiming him the greatest of the great."

A fan rose from a seat back of the press box, stretched and said rather wisely:

"Well, Cov, they oughta give you a big hand. It's your last game."

It's true. Coveleskie is through. He'll never pitch another game like that. Neither will Burleigh Grimes, king of the National League hurlers and another star of the series.

They are through unless the major leagues reverse their ruling abolishing the spit-ball this year.

When freak deliveries were put under the ban last winter the moguls gave the spit ball pitchers a season to develop other deliveries

Coveleskie tried early in the season to get along without the "spitter", but he was unsuccessful. He wasn't effective with a curve ball and was forced to go back to his forte.

Urban Shocker of the Browns and Jack Quinn, of the Yankees are in the same boat.

Bill Doak, of the Cards, Fillingim, of the Braves and Phil Douglas of the Giants will have to go along with Grimes in the National League, if the rule is not revoked.

Rather than lose such valuable pitchers, it seems probable that the club owners will seek to have the rule amended

President Heydler, of the National League, has maintained that there was no reason to save the "spit-ballers"

During the last season campaign was conducted among the players to have the rule changed

It was suggested to bar newcomers with the "spitter", but to permit those pitchers now using the most delivery to continue it until their career ends

One club owner in each league is said to be ready to come to the aid of the "spitters" at the winter meeting of the major leagues.

WOMAN'S FAITH HELPS HUSBAND

"I owe my good health to my wife who had faith in a newspaper ad she saw of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I was down so badly with stomach and liver trouble after 15 years of suffering and trying every known remedy that I had no faith in anything This medicine has certainly been a 'Godsend' to me" It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Craig's Drug Store and good druggists everywhere 1t

RETURN TO THRONE

(By United Press)

Athens, Nov. 16—King Constantine, dethroned by the Allies, may return to power as a result of the national elections in which Premier Venizelos appears to have been defeated

Returns were incomplete today but the cabinet issued a statement declaring first claims of victory appeared to be premature

Two policemen were killed yesterday in rioting between two factions. Constantine supporters opened fire on Venizelos demonstrators The officers were killed at the first fusillade The fire was returned. A number of arrests were made

The Venizelos government, it was announced, will make no further effort to combat the election result, but will turn the national machinery over to the opposition as soon as returns are complete

King Constantine was forced from the Greek throne during the war, the Allies charging Queen Sophie, sister of the German emperor, had too great influence over him Premier Venizelos became the actual head of the government, although the King's second son Alexander, was named King Following Alexander's death recently an attempt was made to put the third son Paul, on the throne He refused, insisting on a plebiscite to determine whether the country wanted him or desired the return of King Constantine.

APPROVE ROLL CALL

Washington, Nov 16—On the eve of the opening of the 4th Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross, an appeal from President-elect Harding was issue today from the national headquarters here. It read:

"Noting that your membership roll call for this season is impending, I have wanted to express my very earnest sympathy for your cause and my hopes that it may be forwarded by the coming campaign

"If in all the world there is an organization more entitled to be regarded as doing good universally and doing nothing else at any time or any place, I do not know what it may be.

"It would be peculiarly a misfortune, if the Red Cross with its magnificent organization and splendid purpose of useful achievement should lose any measure of its efficiency because the special interest and enthusiasm of wartime has been built to serve humanity, and humanity needs its service in peace, just as it did in war My wishes for all success go out to you."

An appeal from Vice President-Coolidge was also made public, as follows:

"There are no large results without organized effort In no other way can the ideals of mankind be exalted, be expressed To this end the Red Cross, the greatest expression of the compassion of mankind, should have its organization maintained and supported."
